Exam Parts

An Apprentice may advance from Personal Supervision to General Supervision (as defined in 21 NCAC 22A .0401) upon passing all of the following:

- Part A. The simulator portion of the exam tests the candidate’s ability to accurately perform a pure-tone threshold test and record the results on an audiogram.
- Part B. The practicum portion of the exam tests the candidate’s ability to meet the Board’s public safety standards when making an ear impression for the fitting of a hearing aid.
- Part C. The multiple-choice exam tests the candidate’s knowledge of state laws, rules and federal regulations for the scope of practice of a hearing aid specialist in North Carolina.

After successfully completing one full year of apprenticeship, an apprentice may be licensed upon passing the following:

- Part D. The multiple-choice exam tests the candidate’s knowledge of audiometry, anatomy and physiology pertaining to the dispensing of hearing aids, hearing aids, hearing aid technologies, and the scope of practice for hearing aid specialists in North Carolina.
- All of Parts A, B, and C, if not previously passed during the initial apprenticeship period.
